

RUFFED GROUSE SOCIETY

Sky Dancing!
Spring Ritual of the American Woodcock
Friday, May 3 7:30 pm
Hailand-Helstrom Family Nature Preserve Complex

Join members of the Ruffed Grouse Society, Al Stewart, MI Department of Natural Resources Upland Game Bird Specialist, and Little Traverse Conservancy Executive Director Kieran Fleming for a presentation and evening stroll to learn about and observe the spring mating display of the American Woodcock. Meet at the Conservancy office at 7:30 pm. There Al will share his extensive knowledge about this fascinating bird. Afterwards, we will go to the Hailand Helstrom Preserve Complex to listen for the birds.
